Memorandum

Date: December 3, 2007

To: Whom It May Concern

From: Giorgio Galetto, MD
Medical Director - Johns Hopkins Hospital AHA CTC - Moscow Training Site
Assistant Professor, Johns Hopkins School of Medicine and Emergency Medicine

Mary Ann Luksic, R.N., B.S.N.
AHA CTC Coordinator - Johns Hopkins Hospital

This letter is to confirm that MD Zavalihina Tatiana Vladimirovna and MD Stankevich Vladimir Romanovich are qualified instructors in the following American Heart Association disciplines: Basic Life Support, Advanced Cardiac Life Support, and Pediatric Advanced Life Support. The Johns Hopkins Hospital American Heart Association Community Training Center grants approval for these instructors to teach the aforementioned AHA programs in your country. Our training center has selected them based on their thorough dedication, extensive medical knowledge, and highly proficient teaching skills displayed in the classroom.

If you have any questions about our training program or the methods of the American Heart Association, please contact our office at +810-1-410-955-9343.

Thank you,
